

Dear Margaret,

What a day! What gorgeous girls and what powerful comments; I had an absolute ball with them and believe they immediately connected to the messages. This feedback is so pleasing:

Workshop Title:	poor	good	very good	excellent	% who thought the workshop was either very good or excellent.
Get The Look Right	0%	1%	36%	63%	99%
Style File	0%	11%	32%	57%	89%
Love The Skin You're In	0%	6%	23%	71%	94%

Would you recommend this program to other students?

No – 0%

Yes – 100%

The girls also took the time to write quite lengthy comments. They had so many wonderful, positive things to say:

- "I would usually sigh during talks like this but it surprised me how much I learnt and my goal now is to be the owner of a business doing something with my passion for commerce." Lauren Raeside
- "My favourite part was everything. I totally loved it all especially the makeup tips. The whole thing should have been longer! It was great how you are so passionate about the cause." Jiff
- "I loved how you presented yourself as a guest speaker. You were open and genuine trying to connect with us but not telling us what to do or who to be. You have a courage and persona that shows you are comfortable and wanting to help. It is a joy to meet people like that!" Emily
- "I love the talk we had about Barbie dolls and women in sport. I learnt so much. Everyone is unique and we are all beautiful. Love yourself don't weigh yourself." Gabrielle Medak
- "I learnt how to be a woman and appreciate myself. My favourite part was the makeup because I personally love makeup and also Fran's talk was really inspirational. Good luck with everything Fran, your kids are the luckiest people ever to have an inspirational and courageous mum like yourself." Nellie
- "I'm going to appreciate myself, my family and friends and I'm not going to put myself down anymore. AMAZING!" Anneka Dodd
- "I was inspired to be happy with myself." Jess
- "'Love The Skin You're In' helped open my eyes and recognize gender inequalities in society and gave me the motivation to take a stand. It was very empowering and helped boost my self esteem and sense of worth. The presenters and messages conveyed were great." Natalia Krslovic
- "I learnt to appreciate who I am, not to put myself or others down, to be there for my friends and to live up to my potential. My favourite part was learning that how we perceive ourselves is more important to me than how others see me." May Morris

- “The makeup session was good but the other parts were great as well. Fran really incorporated us into it.” Isabel Solis –Ruminot
- “It changed my view on life. I learnt to put things in perspective.” Anon.
- “It really opened my eyes to images which I would normally just pass over and think nothing of. It was such a good experience which I will keep with me my whole life- thank you.” Lara
- “I found the intro really interesting and it made me really listen the whole time. I learnt to respect your body, be who you are and to live life!” Emma
- “Mel was really nice and had good tips. Fran was really inspiring and I will go away feeling good about myself. Women are strong! I am beautiful and will be content with who I am.” Negar
- “I learnt how important it is to be supportive of one another, to be what you want and to make your own mind up. I didn’t think it would be very good but the whole thing was so much fun. I just loved it.” Caroline McDonagh
- “I loved the ‘Style File’ because we were really given a chance to be creative and it was really interactive.” Veronica
- “I didn’t think it would be as good as what it was. It was really social. I found a lot of the facts really changed how I perceive things and people. Great presenters! Really beautiful and outgoing people.” Eliza Reid
- “My favourite part is hard to pick. I really liked learning about the make-up and learning facts about women. I learnt to think positive and to treat yourself as a whole person not just parts.” Michelle McCowage
- “I loved the ‘Style File’ because it was inspiring with all the personal stories. You’re fantastic and you made me feel good about my body. Save our princesses!” Carolyn Evans
- “I learnt I am more than my good looks!” Jenna Smith
- “Talking about self esteem and the way women are viewed was really eye opening. I learnt to be proud to be a woman, stand up for what you believe in and encourage one another.” Anon.
- “Be who you are, stay true and help others stay true.” Sarah Crowley
- “The media is screwed. We need to look after our ‘princesses’, appreciate me, appreciate others and be what I want to be.” Sarah
- “My favourite thing was hearing personal experiences and really touching stories. I learnt I am beautiful! Thanks- love yah!” Emma Barlow
- “I learnt I can be me! Happiness is important and be open and truthful. Your bubbly personality was awesome!” Jessica Myles
- “‘Get The Look Right’ and ‘Love The Skin You’re In’ empowered me to accept myself, stay positive and keep it real.” Courtney Hoolahan
- “TRULY INSPIRING. We are all special. Being individual is a gift.” Alicia Brown
- “I enjoyed learning the basic tips on make-up because I don’t actually know how to apply it. I liked the personal stories because they were very interesting and relevant.” Karina Ellis
- “It was all awesome...I loved it! I learnt so many lessons for my journey in life. Wonderful speakers! Out of this world and gorgeous personalities and ideas. Thank you.” Stephanie I.

Thank you Margaret.
